MORNING WORSHIP FOCUS

We are created to desire greater things than what this world can offer. When we come to the end of things, we are still left with a desire for more - for more time, for deeper insight, for greater joy. We seek the taste that will never fade away, the water that will quench our thirst. This desire for eternity has been placed within us so that we will live our days on this earth well - so that we will seek the eternal God and be with him forever. Then we will be satisfied.

Join us after the morning service for a luncheon in the fellowship hall to thank the Hulst family for their time at Comstock.

Hearing assistance is available.
