MORNING WORSHIP FOCUS

On Father's Day today we consider the important and challenging task God entrusts to us to tell the next generation the wonderful truths about our God. As valuable as church school and Christian Day schools are in helping us carry out this task, it is quite clear that the most important, life changing Christian education occurs in our homes. We'll paint a picture of what that looks like by painting a picture of what that looks like. We'll paint this picture using our knowledge of how children learn, and how parents teach them – using the Old Testament example of Abraham and Isaac. Like Abraham, we all need to draw upon God's grace as we take up this task.
