Worship Focus

The Gospel of John devotes four whole chapters (ch. 14-17) to Jesus' own description of the new spiritual "economy" which would be established after he died, rose, and ascended into Heaven, when the Holy Spirit would be poured out on Pentecost. This morning we take a closer look at John 14:9-20, and pull out the important teaching that in this new spiritual economy, we are responsible to ask for whatever we need to accomplish God's purposes in our lives and in our world; and that when we do, great things will happen.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Senior Fellowship Hour

Pastor Dan and Mary are working on starting a "Senior Fellowship Hour," for the members of the congregation. Tentatively we are thinking of once a month on the second third Tuesday of every month. If you don't drive, there are others who do, and we'll work on finding transportation for those members who need it. The first of these get-togethers will be on March 19. Pastor Dan will be contacting those who might be interested next week. If you would like to be included and he doesn't contact you, it's probably because he doesn't think you're "elderly," in which case give him a call.

Power in Prayer

All are welcome to join us on Thursday mornings at 9:00 AM for prayer time here at our church as we lift up the prayers of our church, our community, and our country. Talk to Tina Slager for more information or any prayer requests you might have.

Free Concert

On Saturday March 16 at 7pm, Grace CRC will be hosting Wendell Kimbrough in concert. Wendell is a singer/songwriter from Alabama who writes songs based on the Psalms for contemporary worship. This is a free concert, sponsored by Grace, Second, and Heritage CRCs. There will be a freewill offering at the event to defray expenses.
