BOOKS:

On This Foundation by Lynn Austin (Book 3 in the Restoration Chronicles)

Saved from the bloody aftermath of Haman's plot to exterminate the Jews, Nehemiah rises to become cupbearer to the powerful King Artaxerxes of Persia. He relishes his position at the king's court in the magnificent city of Susa. But he can never forget that his people live in exile, and he longs for a place he's never seen – Jerusalem. When his brother brings him news that Jerusalem's walls are in ruins, Nehemiah burns with righteous anger. But what can an insignificant man do to help a city that lies 1,000 miles away? As he prays and fasts, a miracle happens! The king not only grants Nehemiah's desire to rebuild Jerusalem, he appoints him governor of Judea! But his troubles have only just begun . . .

Rich in biblical and historical detail, this book is the powerful conclusion to the Restoration Chronicles, which explore faith in the midst of oppression, offering hope that – in spite of appearances – the gracious hand of God is upon all who believe.

“Cape Light Series” by Thomas Kinkade and Katherine Spencer – 1. Cape Light, 2. Home Song, 3. Gathering Place, and 4. A New Leaf. If you drive along the New England coast, you will come to the charming village of Cape Light. It's the kind of place where neighbors help neighbors and people have the time to appreciate God's blessings every day. Get to know the inhabitants of this seaside hamlet that's as cozy as the author's famous “paintings of light”, whose stories will capture your heart.

7 Men and the Secret of Their Greatness by Eric Metaxas – How did George Washington resist the temptation to become the first king of America, and why did Wilbur Wilberforce give up the chance to become Prime Minister of England? What enabled Jackie Robinson to surrender his right to fight back against racism, or Dietrich Bonhoeffer to jeopardize his freedom and safety to defy the Nazis? In this stirring and inspiring work, this best-selling author reclaims a long-lost sense of the heroic – the idea that certain lives are worthy of emulation. Get to know the seven men in this book, and your life will be immeasurably richer.

DVD:

“The Drop Box” – One frigid winter, Pastor Lee finds an abandoned infant on his church steps. This, paired with his love for his own disabled son, inspires him to build a heated hatch to rescue others who have had to be relinquished by their mothers due to cultural stigmas. This wonderful documentary tells the true story of a South Korean pastor and his heroic efforts to embrace and protect abandoned children.

“Charlotte's Web 2”, Wilbur's Great Adventure – A continuation of one of the most beloved children's stories, complete with new characters and 4 new songs, this movie gives an important message about friendship and courage.
